

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

It is an outrage that you are allowing them to use the PUBLIC airwaves in this way. Where is your outrage? I have not heard a peep from the FCC, yey when Janet Jackson flashed a boob on the Super Bowl you were all over the airwaves with your outrage.

What are you going to do to ensure that Sinclair is not allowed to use the PUBLIC airwaves to run political propaganda????

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
